

EXTRACT OF A FOOD FOR THOUGHT BY HON. JAMES R. RUGU TO NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF RIGWE STUDENTS (NARS), UNIVERSITY OF JOS CHAPTER, 2017 YEAR BOOK

There is a time for all things. In spite of the extant gloom, this breed of Rigwe Youths sure stands in the gap of Rigwe continuity as a people and nation. So much hope of this nation hangs precariously on what you do or don't do for all of us. You do not write your life with words, you write your life with actions.

You are amply primed to do well in the very near future with prayers, hard work, determination and steady focus. Your responsibility and duty to Rigwe nation and Nigeria at large is not a walk in the park though. Work for responsible profit and not for hustle profit.

You remain agents of rebuilding our developmental firmament. Your conscience should deeply prick you that you are the builders of nations and not angles of demagoguery.

Your aloofness in taking decisions on deep moral issues will not only be a silent acquiescence to evil, but a conspiratorial vandalism.

Your committal to God's supremacy shall be total, advisably.

Signed

Hon. James R. Rugu
