BY
PROF. NAOMI N. JAMES-RUGU
TO 2010 GRADUATING CLASS OF
ECWA SECONDARY SCHOOL, MIANGO,
BASSA LOCAL GOVERNMENT AREA, PLATEAU STATE, NIGERIA

May I use this opportunity to congratulate all of you for the effort you have made to have reached this level.

We have all prayed for you to become successful in your SSCE and NECO Examinations. We are being optimistic that you will have good credentials to enable you forge ahead.

It is common knowledge that no one can prognosticate the future, though with your hardwork, acknowledging the grace of God and trusting in Him, I have no doubt in my mind that some of you will be our future Medical Doctors, Veterinary Doctors, Surgeons, Microbiologists, Zoologists, Medical Entomologists, Agricultural Entomologists, Medical Parasitologists, Engineers, Builders, Architects, Chartered Accountants, Lawyers, Research Fellows, Lecturers, Teachers, Preachers, Pilots, Political Scientists, Civil Engineers and so forth.

It is my fervent prayer that you will not only attain the first degree, but will enthusiastically reach the highest level in education.

Thank you.
